PHOENIX PROJECT: OPEN STUDIO INITIATIVE

The Phoenix Project is a nonprofit arts and social service organization. We provide stimulating, powerful arts and performance based programming with a special emphasis on using the creative arts to inspire personal growth, interpersonal understanding, and social change. Our mission is to utilize and bring the creative process to individuals of all ages and backgrounds and to empower people to turn to the arts for personal growth. We serve both the general public and the diverse community of under-served local residents living in and around Orange County. Through our studio, we will honor the artist in every individual regardless of age or skill level and strive to meet the needs of the community and cultivates each person's innate ability to heal through creativity. The studio is a safe environment to express yourself and connect with others through experiences of art making, skill sharing and dialogue. There are many ways to support The Phoenix Project. Any monetary gift of $25+ will receive a free tee shirt! You can donate: Funds, be a Studio Sponsor New and gently used materials and equipment (traditional and non-traditional materials welcome!) be a Studio Patron Time, be a Volunteer Skills, be a Workshop Mentor Other ways to help: Follow and promote us on Social Media, spread the word to friends and family! Make Art with us - take part in our events and activities! Invite us to your community events! If you are interested in becoming a studio patron, or helping our organization grow in any of these ways please contact us and let us know! We'd be happy to answer any questions you might have and how our communities might support and serve one another better! Phoenix Project is a nonprofit
